It Pays to Be UNION!

Median Weekly Earnings
Union versus Nonunion Workers

All Workers
- Union: $1,144
- Nonunion: $958
- 16% Higher

Men
- Union: $1,216
- Nonunion: $1,082
- 12% Higher

Women
- Union: $1,067
- Nonunion: $891
- 20% Higher

Black Workers
- Union: $905
- Nonunion: $711
- 27% Higher

Latino Workers
- Union: $954
- Nonunion: $686
- 39% Higher

Benefits
- 95% of union workers had the option of an employer-sponsored health care plan, compared to 68% of nonunion workers.
- 94% of union workers had access to an employer-sponsored retirement plan, compared to 67% of nonunion workers.
- 93% of union workers had the option of employer-sponsored prescription drug coverage, compared to 67% of nonunion workers.
- 74% of union workers had the option of an employer-sponsored dental plan, compared to 40% of nonunion workers.

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics

Higher Wages • Better Benefits • Safer Workplace • Voice on the Job
Snohomish & Island County Labor Council, AFL/CIO
2810 Lombard, Suite 208 • Everett, WA 98201 • Phone: (425) 259-7922
www.snolabor.org • snolabor@snolabor.org